Will you help give the gift of play?

The Area's First Inclusive Playground – Located Centrally in OK Ward Park

Communities across the country are creating playgrounds where children of all abilities can experience the magic of play together.

Brooklyn's Playground will be a legacy to the children and parents of our community for years to come.

A Valley Pride Project – A Place Where Magic Will Happen!

Smooth, forgiving surfaces help people with mobility limitations.

Brooklyn Fisher, for whom the Brooklyn's Playground effort is named, has spinal bifida. Her parents, Jonny and Melissa, are leading the effort to build an inclusive playground for our community's children.

Safe "chill out" spots for autistic children.

Parents can relax – separate fenced sections for tots.

Sensory-rich visual and musical elements.

...The Important Work of Play for All of Our Children!

Donations to date: $50,000

Brooklyn's Playground is being built entirely with donated cash, materials and labor.

Ways you can help:

1. Make a contribution or pledge today. All gifts are tax-deductible.
2. Sign up here or online as a volunteer.
3. Donate materials or skilled labor.

Together, we can give the gift of play to all of our area's children.
