

Date: Sep 19, 2011; Section: Front Page; Page: A1

Memorial donations help build playground

BY JIMMY HANCOCK
jhancock@journalnet.com

POCATELLO — When Kori Bond and Scott Anderson asked friends and family to make donations to Brooklyn's Playground in lieu of sending flowers to honor their daughter Kaelyn, neither could have imagined there would be such an outpouring.

Brooklyn Fisher

"It's beyond $6,000, but many of the donations were made anonymously, so we don't know the exact number right now," said Anderson, adding that he hasn't just been surprised by the dollar figure. "Not only the amount of money, but the number of people.

See Playground, A4