

I'm the mother of five beautiful, healthy children. I was a standout high school athlete and enjoyed an active, athletic lifestyle before an automobile accident put me in a wheelchair.

Brooklyn's Playground will be a blessing to me and other parents who face mobility challenges. For the first time, I'm going to be able to take my children onto a playground and play with them!

What a wonderful thing this community is doing.

Angie Oliver

Pocatello Mother

